

DANIEL FLORES

Speaker • Author • Founder, Drive By Preacher

"I should be a grave, not an author. But the God of fire walked into my ruins and refused to let me die there."

From the grave to the fire — a testimony for the man who thinks he's too far gone.

THE STORY

In 1989, at seventeen, Daniel buried both his parents six months apart — a "double strike" that sent him into decades of addiction, rebellion, and lost identity.

Everything changed in 2018 in a supernatural "Spiritual Bootcamp," where his old self died and God rebuilt him — restoring his mind, his home, and his calling as a father and son.

Today Daniel leads the Drive By Preacher ministry (31K+ followers) and is the author of SON: The Story of a Man God Refused to Give Up On. He speaks with raw honesty to men the church often loses — the addicted, the ashamed, the ones who feel disqualified.
